

ANGELA R. WOOD

42120 N. Elmwood Loop
Hammond, LA 70403
Mobile phone: (985)320-7623
Email: awoodLCSW@gmail.com

EDUCATION

- Doctorate of Philosophy – Social Work December, 2006
Tulane University
Dissertation: “Motivational Enhancement Therapy: A Case Study of a Community-Wide Implementation Process”
- Masters in Social Work May, 1992
Southern Illinois University – Carbondale
- Bachelors of Science in Social Work December, 1991
Southern Illinois University – Carbondale

LICENSURES

Licensed Clinical Social Worker 2/5/97–p
Louisiana License #4800 (since 8/16/00)
Illinois License (2/5/97-11/30/03)
Board Approved Clinical Supervisor since November, 2000-p
Certified Clinical Supervisor (Louisiana Addictive Disorders Regulatory Authority) 4/5/08-8/31/21
Certification #97
Certified Clinical Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Social Worker 10/19/07-p
Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist 6/18/04-12/2012
Licensed Social Worker 1993 – 1997 (Illinois)

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers, October, 2016-p
Member Louisiana Association of Substance Abuse Counselors and Trainers (LASACT), 2006-2021
Member National Association of Social Workers (NASW), 2001-p
-Louisiana Chapter, Florida Parishes Regional Chair July, 2011-2014; July 2020-August 2022
-Louisiana Chapter, membership committee member November, 2019-2022
NAADAC (The Association for Addiction Professionals), 2015-2016
National Association of Drug Court Professionals, 2015-2016

EMPLOYMENT: Teaching Experience

Assistant Professor, Southeastern Louisiana University August, 2020 – p
Department of Health and Human Sciences, Social Work Program
Tenure-track position teaching undergraduate social work courses, advising students (academic and professional), conduct research, serve on university, college and departmental committees as assigned.

Instructor, Southeastern Louisiana University August, 2016 – July, 2020
Department of Health and Human Sciences, Social Work Program
Field coordinator responsible for student placement and oversight in field internships and associated seminar and coursework. Instructors advise students and participate in campus committees. Social Work Advisory Board chair.

Contributing Faculty, Walden University September, 2013 – p
School of Social Work and Human Services

Taught a variety of asynchronous online courses and skills lab facilitator for students in the MSW program. Served as dissertation/capstone chair and second committee member for doctoral students. Subject Matter Expert (SME) for groups and family course.

Lead Faculty, Walden University December, 2013 – December, 2020

Each term I monitored the online classrooms for 3-6 contributing faculty members totaling 4-10 course sections. Duties included providing support and mentorship, checking the quality of interactions, and quality of grading feedback in the online classroom to ensure the faculty member is complying with performance indicators.

Adjunct Instructor, Tulane University May 2006 – August 2006

School of Social Work: SW 731: Methods I (4 credit hours), Summer, 2006

Adjunct Instructor, Southeastern Louisiana University Jan. 2003 – Dec. 2004

Department of Kinesiology and Health Studies Department:

RECENT EMPLOYMENT: Professional Experience

Private Practitioner (part-time), Self-employed, 01/2011-p
Hammond, LA 70403

Primarily conduct training, consultation and clinical supervision services. Previously provided treatment of various life issues and psychological illnesses; individual, couples and family therapy. Specialize in chemical dependency/substance abuse, life adjustment issues.

Project Director, Behavioral Health Court Program, 22nd Judicial District Court, Covington, LA 1/2015-8/2016

Coordinate the daily operations of the problem-solving court. Charged with implementing and administering two federal grants. Functions include grant-writing, budget development, data collection, report writing and submissions, personnel management, contract administration, program development, and community resource identification, outreach and coordination.

Mental Health Program Director – Adult Services/Access Unit Coordinator, Florida Parishes Human Services Authority, Hammond, LA 4/2011-2014

Responsible for the coordination and continuity of care for adult mental health services across a five parish region. Conducted scheduling and oversight of afterhours crisis intervention, discharge planning and coordination with acute and intermediate behavioral health institutions, and contract monitoring. Assisted with development of Quality Enhancement (QE) procedures and coordination of data collection and reporting. In July, 2012, additional duties include oversight and supervision of the Access Unit for Mental Health Services. Responsible for supervision of two social work supervisors and data collection for the admissions process. Agency-wide QE Coordinator for Mental Health Services and Addictive Disorders Services starting January, 2014.

Director of Training and Professional Development/Assistant Clinical professor, LSU Health Sciences Center, School of Public Health – Juvenile Justice Program 6/2007-12/2010

Interim Director of Program Evaluation 11/2008-7/2009

Responsible for ensuring professional staff development of nursing, medical, and mental health staff. Responsible for ensuring content of mental health, health, and behavioral health trainings developed and provided by the Juvenile Justice Program to all staff at Bridge City and Jetson Centers for Youth. Additional duties include securing appropriate CEU approvals from licensing bodies from disciplines such as social work and psychology as well as collection and analysis of training evaluations for continuous quality improvement. Substance abuse consultation, supervision, and training services are also provided.

Assistant Director of Mental Health, LSU Health Sciences Center – Juvenile Justice Program (Bridge City Center for Youth) 9/2004- 5/2007

Responsible for development and management of the Substance Abuse Treatment Program for youth incarcerated at Bridge City Center for Youth. Additional duties include monitoring adherence and implementation of the treatment model and programming, hiring and supervision of counseling staff, and direct services such as assessment and group and individual sessions. Also provided consultation, training and program supervision for Jetson Center for Youth and Swanson Center for Youth.

SELECT PUBLICATIONS

Wood, A. R., Ross, L., & Wood, R. (accepted). Motivational interviewing and chronic care management using the Stages of Change Model. Health and Social Work (pending publication).

Noll, K., Wood, A. R., Wood, R. J. (2022). Student health coaches experiences with adults with chronic health conditions. American Journal of Health Studies, 36(4). DOI: <https://doi.org/10.47779/ajhs.2021.701>

Wood, A.R. & Wood, R. (2021). How to motivate yourself to change. Psyche Magazine. <https://psyche.co/guides/how-to-get-motivated-to-make-positive-changes-in-your-life>.

Wood, A. R. (2020). The motivational interviewing workbook: Exercises to decide what you want and how to get there. Callisto Media.

Wood, A. R., Wood, R. J., & Taylor, S. M. (2012). Becoming more therapeutic: Motivational interviewing as a communication style for paraprofessionals in juvenile justice settings. In E. L. Grigorenko Handbook of Juvenile Forensic Psychology and Psychiatry (pp. 336-351). New York: Springer Publishers.

Wood, A.R., Ager, R.D., & Wood, R.J. (2011). Motivational interviewing: A qualitative examination of factors impacting adoption and implementation in a community-wide setting. Journal on Social Work Practice in the Addictions, 11, 336-351.

SELECT PRESENTATIONS

Peer-Reviewed

Wood, A. R., Schutt, V., & Abadjian, L. (2022). "The Staff are Trained: Now What Do I Do? Implementation Tips for Providing Consultation and Supervision," presented at the annual international Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers Forum in Chicago, Illinois, on October 21, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). "Who is Using Motivational interviewing and What Do They Think of It? Preliminary Results from a Cross-Sectional Survey." Poster presented at the annual international Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers Forum in Chicago, Illinois, on October 22, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Critical Race Theory. Plenary presentation for the annual conference of the NASW-LA on June 2, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Motivational Interviewing and CBT. Webinar presented for NASW-LA Professional Development Series on May 6, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2021). "Motivation interviewing skills for BSW students in the field." Presented at the annual BPD (Baccalaureate Program Directors) Conference (virtual) on April 10, 2021.

Wood, A. R. (2019). "Motivational Interviewing Strategies in Clinical Supervision." Presented at the annual Terrell Conference at Southeastern Louisiana University, Hammond, Louisiana, on January 10, 2020.

Wood, A. R. (2019). "Motivational Interviewing: Kicking it up a Notch." Presented at the annual Terrell Conference at Southeastern Louisiana University, Hammond, Louisiana, on January 11, 2019.

Wood, A. R. (2018). "Motivational Interviewing and Child Welfare: Facilitating Change." Presented at the annual Together We Can conference in Lafayette, Louisiana on October 15, 2018.

Invited Presentations

Wood, A. R. (2023). Introduction to Motivational Interviewing. Three-part workshop presented for Jefferson Parish Human Services Authority on March 24, April 21, and May 12, 2023.

Wood, A. R. (2023). Motivational Interviewing and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy: Tips for Integrating into Practice. Live webinar presented for Make an Impact CE Learning Systems on May 6, 2023.

Wood, A. R. (2023). Introduction to Motivational Interviewing for Health Care. Three-part webinar presented for Access Health Louisiana, January 20, February 10, and March 10, 2023.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Motivational Interviewing: Evidence-Based Treatment for Depression, Anxiety, Substance Abuse and More. Live webinar presented for PESI.com contracted organization, December 7 and repeated December 15, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Motivational Interviewing: Evidence-Based Treatment for Depression, Anxiety, Substance Abuse and More. Live webinar presented for PESI.com, December 13, 2022.

Wood, A. R. and Wood, R. J. (2022). Introduction to Motivational Interviewing for Health Care. Workshop presented for Access Health Louisiana on August 1, 2022, at River Ridge Public Library, New Orleans, LA.

Wood, A. R. (2022). The Struggle is Real: Understanding How Motivation Works and Committing to Change. Virtual live presentation for Southeastern Louisiana University. Hosted by the University Wellness Committee on October 5, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Introduction to Motivational Interviewing for Health Care. Two-part webinar presented to two cohorts of health care providers for Indiana Health Families Coalition on June 23, June 27, June 30 and July 6, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Dual Diagnosis. Behavioral Health Training for local law enforcement. NAMI St. Tammany. Tangipahoa Parish Government Building, Hammond, LA, on June 29, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Train the Trainer. Louisiana Primary Care Association. Three-part webinar presented June 22, June 27, and July 21, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Introduction to Motivational Interviewing for Health Care. Three-part webinar presented to health care providers for LSUHSC Louisiana Cancer Prevention and Control Program on March 11, April 8 and May 20, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2022). Introduction to Motivational Interviewing for Care Coordinators. Webinar presented to the Magellan Wrap Around Services providers, January 24, 2022.

Wood, A. R. (2021). "Motivational Interviewing: An Overview for Peer Specialists." Webinar presented for the New Jersey Prevention Network's Annual Conference on September 1, 2021.

Wood, A. R. (2021). "Motivational Interviewing for Healthcare." Three part workshop series presented via webinar for LIONS VIP between March 19 and April 16, 2021.

Wood, A. R. (2021). "Motivational Interviewing for Healthcare." Three part workshop series presented on multiple dates to four cohorts via webinar for Ochsner Health, outpatient clinics between January 22 and March 12, 2021.

Wood, A. R. (2021). "Introduction to Motivational Interviewing." Presented a two-part workshop via webinar for RHD on January 6, 2021 and January 11, 2021.