

Christopher Routh is a Deputy Public Defender and trial attorney with the Office of the Hinds County Public Defender in Jackson, Mississippi. Christopher is a class of 2015 graduate of Gideon's Promise and has attended the Gerry Spence Trial Lawyers College in Wyoming and The National Criminal Defense College Trial Practice Institute. Chris also serves on the Board of Directors of the for the Mississippi Public Defender's Association as Treasurer and is a member of the Mississippi Association for Justice, National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and National Association for Public Defense. Christopher lives in Clinton with his wife Emily, son John and their English bulldog, Fitzgerald.