

Lenderrick Taylor

Lenderrick Taylor is a native of Canton, MS. Following graduation from Mississippi College School of Law, he served as a Judicial Law Clerk, and later as an Assistant Public Defender for Hinds County, Mississippi where he represented indigent clients charged with a felony within Hinds County. Before law school, Lenderrick received a B.S. in Business Administration from Ole Miss.