

Cecilia “Cessie” Alfonso, LCSW, ACSW, CSW, is a nationally recognized expert in forensic social work, domestic violence and organizational development in the area of cultural competence and valuing diversity.

For the past 20 years, Alfonso has provided social work and psychosocial assessments for civil and criminal attorneys across the United States and internationally. As a mitigation specialist, Alfonso and her associates have conducted over 700 mitigation investigations.

Alfonso is an Afro-Puerto Rican/Cuban lesbian feminist who speaks of intersectionality from a personal and professional perspective.